

NDCPD

North Dakota Center for Persons with Disabilities
at Minot State University

NDCPD is a statewide organization that serves the disability community by working with people with disabilities, their family members, community providers, and government agencies. Our staff provide training, technical assistance, service, research, and information. We are part of a national network of 67 other University Centers of Excellence on Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD).

NDCPD GOALS (2022 – 2027)

- 1 Growing to be Empowered
- 2 Living Successfully in an Adult World
- 3 Succeeding in Integrated Work Settings
- 4 Aging with Dignity

TOPICS WE ADDRESS:

- Transitions
- Early Intervention
- Aging
- Health Literacy
- Housing
- Employment
- ... and much more!

NDCPD envisions a world where people see the potential and worth of all individuals. Where people with disabilities are free from abuse and neglect, contribute to a rich and full community life, and make choices about their own future.
